ASSIGNMENT: Fundamental Rights in Indian Constitution

SUBJECT: Social Studies (SST101)

CLASS & SECTION: Class 8 - Section A

ACADEMIC YEAR: 2025 - 2026

MARKS EVALUATED: 92 / 100 (Grade A)

TEACHER DIRECTIVE & PROBLEM FOCUS:
Analyze the 6 fundamental rights with constitutional articles, landmark case precedents, and writ remedies.

1. Executive Overview & Problem Context

Part III (Articles 12 to 35) of the Constitution of India embodies the Fundamental Rights, described by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar as the most criticized yet indispensable bedrock of Indian constitutional democracy. Inspired by the American Bill of Rights, these rights guarantee civil liberties, equality before law, and protection against state arbitrariness.

2. Core Analysis, Solutions & Systematic Working

- 1. Right to Equality (Articles 14 – 18):

  Guarantees equality before the law and equal protection of laws (Art. 14); prohibits discrimination on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex, or place of birth (Art. 15); ensures equality of opportunity in public employment (Art. 16); abolishes untouchability (Art. 17); and abolishes non-military titles (Art. 18).

- 2. Right to Freedom (Articles 19 – 22):

  Article 19 protects six democratic freedoms: speech & expression, peaceful assembly, association, movement throughout India, residence, and trade/profession. Article 21 protects life and personal liberty, expanded through judicial interpretation to include right to privacy (Puttaswamy case), clean environment, and free elementary education (Art. 21A).

- 3. Right against Exploitation (Articles 23 – 24):

  Article 23 prohibits human trafficking and forced labor (begar). Article 24 prohibits employment of children below 14 years in hazardous industries, factories, and mines.

- 4. Freedom of Religion & Cultural Rights (Articles 25 – 30):

  Articles 25-28 uphold secularism, granting freedom of conscience and free profession, practice, and propagation of religion. Articles 29-30 protect linguistic and religious minorities in preserving their script, culture, and educational institutions.

- 5. Right to Constitutional Remedies (Article 32):

  Designated by Dr. Ambedkar as the "Heart and Soul of the Constitution", Article 32 empowers citizens to move the Supreme Court directly via prerogative writs: Habeas Corpus (unlawful detention), Mandamus (public duty performance), Prohibition (subordinate court jurisdiction), Certiorari (quashing orders), and Quo-Warranto (unlawful public office).
